Do not get duped on housing plan: official

DC CORRESPONDENT
RAJAHMUNDRY, NOV. 1

Municipal commissioner Sunit Kumar Gandhi asked the people not to be duped by persons posing as middlemen promising allotment of flats under various housing schemes of both the Centre and the state government, saying that the allotments are based on eligibility and merit of the applicant.

Addressing employees through a teleconference held on Thursday, the municipal commissioner said that as per norms, those who were eligible to get the flats allotted under Prime Minister Awas Yojana or under NTR Housing Scheme could be provided the flats.

Referring to reports that some middlemen were trying to convince people to pay some money to them with an assurance to get the flats allotted under the housing schemes, the municipal commissioner reiterated his appeal not to be duped by such people.

He asked those who were interested to submit the application forms for allotment of a flat under the housing schemes and approach the municipal office at the revenue section along with their Aadhar and ration cards to register. Their applications would be processed and based on merit, flats would be allotted.

He said that in the first phase a list of 4,200 beneficiaries was released for allotment of flats, adding that they were going to release another list of 3,675 beneficiaries in November as they were making efforts in that direction.
